

Manipulation & Extremism

Created by Turkish Team

MANIPULATION

An illustration on a dark purple background with a brick wall. A large hand emerges from the top left, holding a string of three pocket watches. Below the watches, a human brain is depicted sitting in a dark armchair, holding a remote control. To the left of the brain is a television set on a stand, displaying a target pattern on its screen.

TOPICS;

- What Is Manipulation
- Characteristics of manipulators
- Media Manipulation
- Internet Manipulation

What Is Manipulation

Manipulation is the use of tricky means to , control, or otherwise influence others to one's advantage.

Also manipulation is forced influence used to gain control, or benefits at the expense of the others .

It is a plan of tricksters and who disrespect moral principles, deceive and take advantage of others' weakness and gullibility.

that does look tasty what are you doing

Internet Manipulation

Internet manipulation refers to the co-optation of digital technology, such as social media algorithms and automated scripts, for commercial, social or political purposes. Such tactics may be employed with the explicit intent to manipulate public opinion, polarise citizens, and improve personal or brand reputation.

LOWKEY

INTERNET MANIPULATION

MEDIA MANIPULATION

Media manipulation is a series of related techniques of someone creates an image or argument that favours their particular interests.

Such tactics may include manipulation, outright deception and propaganda techniques, and often involve the suppression of information or points of view by crowding them out, by inducing other people to stop listening to certain arguments, or by simply diverting attention elsewhere.

How to Spot Manipulation

Five main principles underlie every media message. You can use these to evaluate the truth, accuracy and relevance of any information you're reading, seeing or hearing.

Someone thinks long and hard about any print or electronic message that is produced: What it will look like; what it will say; and what it will do.

Messages have economic, social, political, historic and aesthetic purposes. There is an important reason for the message: to sell a product, to persuade someone, to establish information or to entertain.

Characteristics Of Manipulators

Have you ever met any manipulative person? Are you wondering what makes them that way?

Examples About Characterist of Manipulators

- They do not clearly say their requests, needs, feelings and opinions.
- They create suspicion,make bad feelings and they leading to relationship break-ups.
- They abruptly change the topic in mid-conversation.
- Their words appear logical and consistent, while their actions or lifestyle are opposite.
- They think for their own advantage.

How to Communicate Consciously With Manipulative People

- Be aware and open-minded

Ask yourself, Is this person truly attempting to override my choice and make me act the way they want?

- Ask yourself

Is this person safe enough to confront, or will there be negative backlash against me if I do?

- Set and enforce healthy boundaries

Stop playing by the manipulator's script. Boundaries keep you from being harmed, and they have consequences for the people who try to cross them.

EXTREMISM

Topics:

- WHAT IS EXTREMISM
- TYPES OF EXTREMISM
- DIFFERENCE BETWEEN
TERRORISM&EXTREMISM
- EXAMPLES ABOUT
EXTREMISM

WHAT IS EXTREMISM

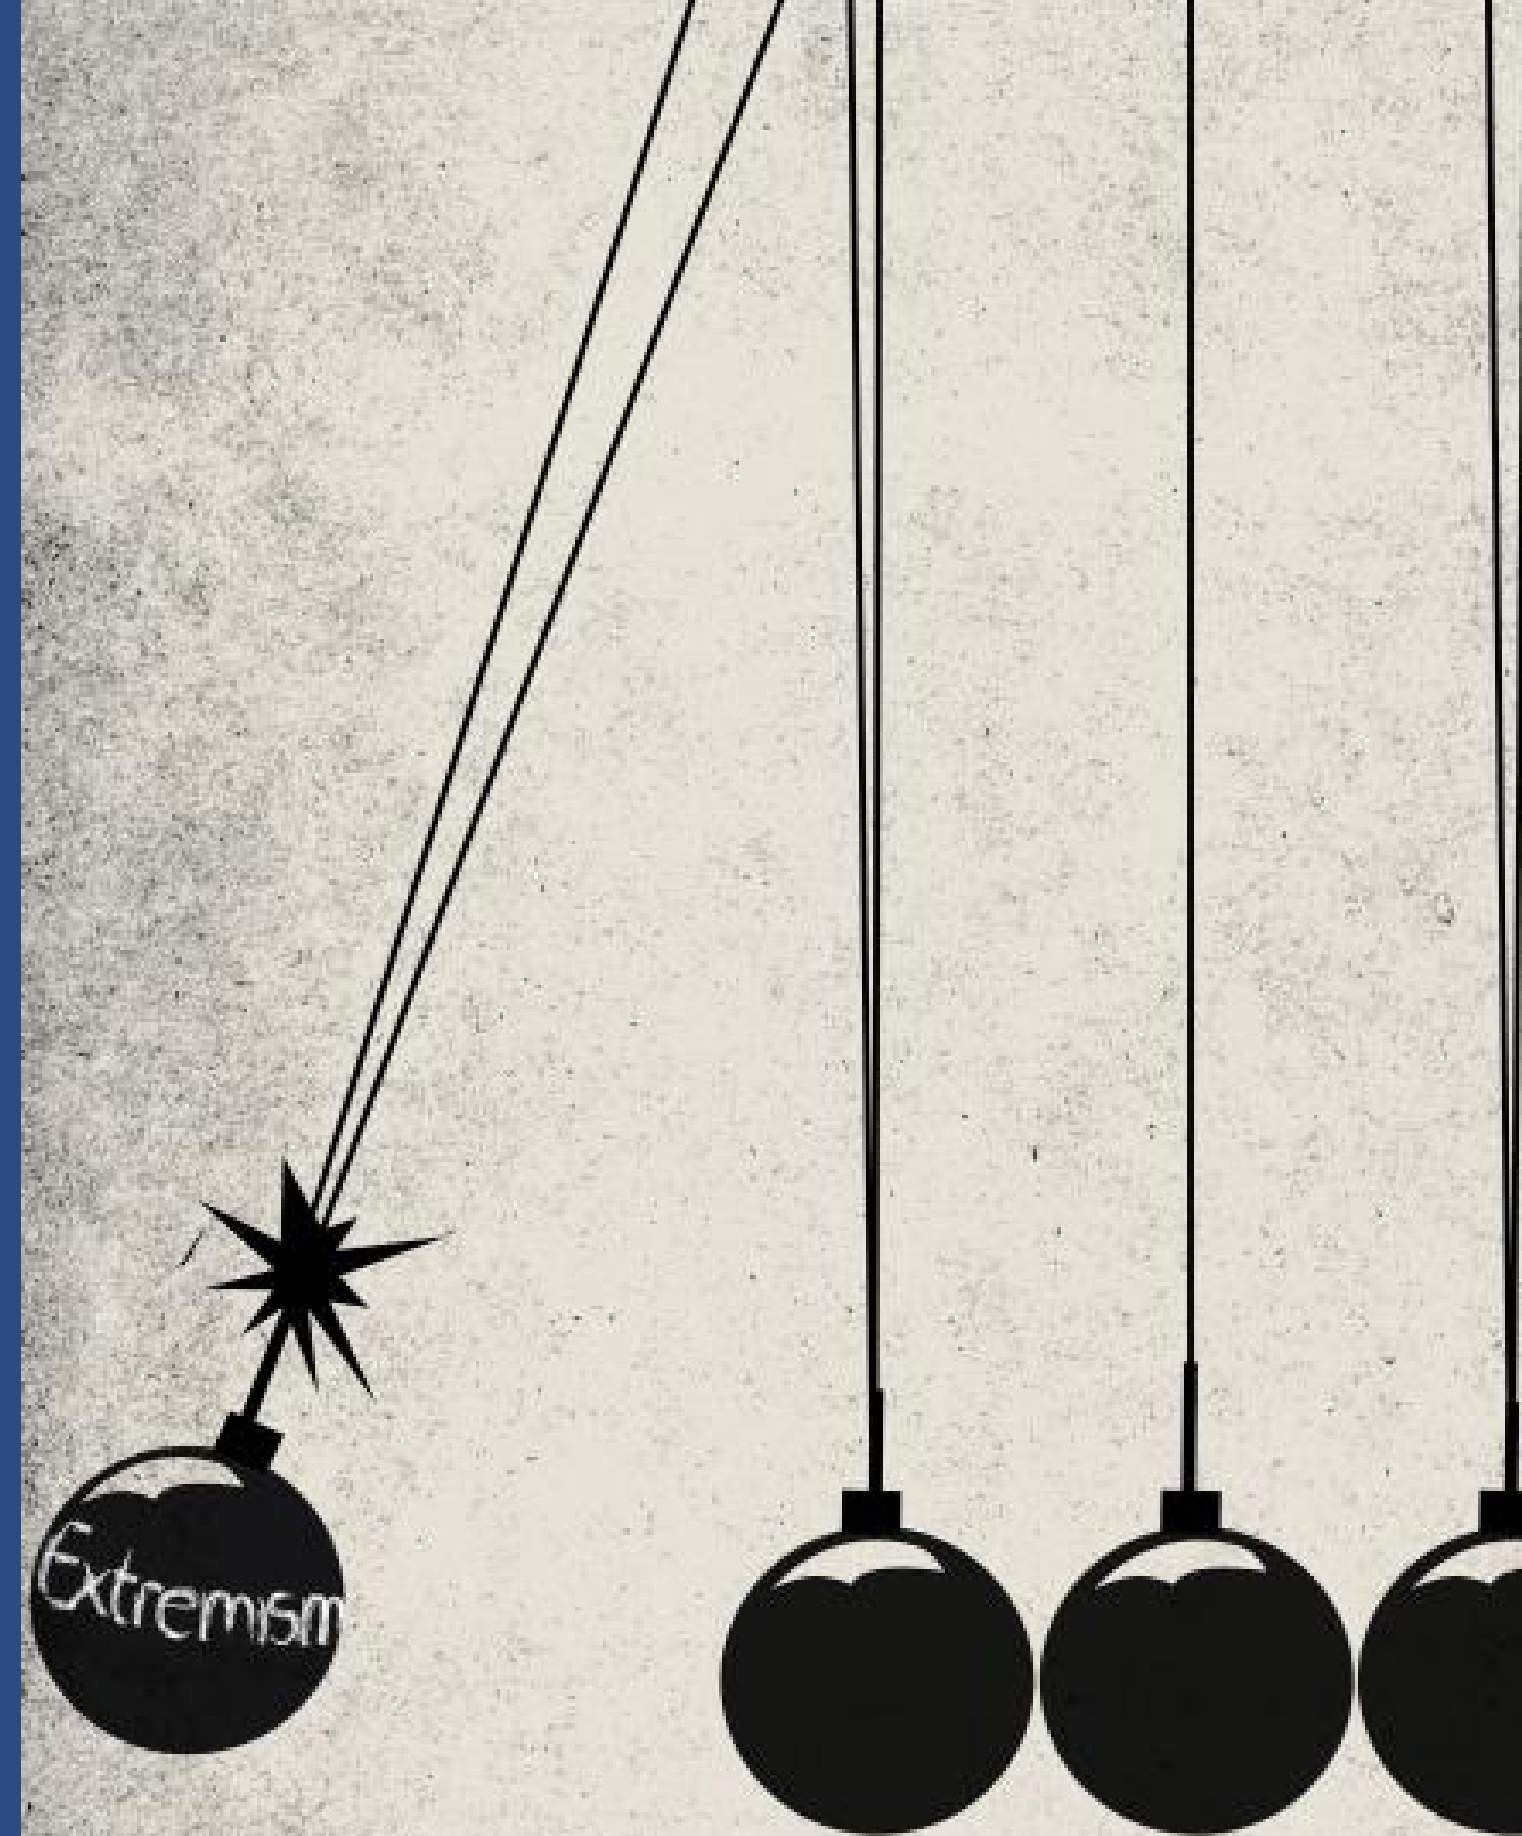

Extremism is holding an extreme ideology, religion, belief, strategy, tradition or a nationalist approach. In another word, it can be defined as being on the radical right or left wing of any kind of belief or idea. To be clear, all these topics e.g. ideologies and religions and traditions are structured in such a way that you can hold and experience both in an extreme way or an intermediate version within the mainstream. Extremism is when it is accepted and experienced in the radical and intolerant harsh way.

WHAT CAUSES EXTREMISM

Domestic Extremism

Domestic extremism refers to the activity of individuals or groups conducting criminal acts of direct action to further their protest campaign. This term covers the conduct of groups involved including the extreme right-wing and anarchist groups.

Violent Extremism

Violent extremism refers to the activity of individuals or groups conducting acts by any means to express views that justify or glorify terrorist violence. This includes those that encourage others to commit terrorist acts or provoke others into terrorist-related activity.

Radicalisation

Radicalisation is the process where a vulnerable young person or adult changes their perception and beliefs due to exposure to an extremist influence (which may be online, publication or one to one direct contact) to become more extremist in nature which may result in extremist actions.

Difference Between Terrorism&Extremism

Terrorism and extremism are sometimes confused.

Terrorism is an attack against the goverment and civils.
But extremism is not only violence, it can also be through thought.

1 ————— 2 ————— 3 ————— 4 ————— 5

Endangers a person's life

Involves serious violence against a person

Causes serious damage to property and environment

Creates a serious risk to the public's health and safety

Interferes with or seriously disrupts an electronic system

Examples In Our World

- Hanau Shooting
- Nazis & Hitler

2020 HANAU SHOOTING

The Hanau shootings happened on 19 February 2020, when eleven people were killed and five people injured in a terrorist shooting in two bars in Hanau, near Frankfurt, Germany.

The Criminal expressed hatred for migrants, especially for people from the Middle East, Central Asia, Southeast Asia and North Africa. He also expressed hatred for German citizens who allowed immigrants into their country, and considered them as "impure".

Nazis & Hitler

Hitler was super extremist. There is evidence throughout the whole of his leadership and written in the book Mein Kampf which was written by Hitler while in prison based on his ideas of Aryan supremacy and how Jews and other races such as Gypsies and black people as the reason why Germany lost the first world war.

RIGHT-WING TERRORISM

The Nazi Regime

The Nazi Regime were responsible for killing of an estimated 19.3 million civilians and prisoners of war. In addition, 28.7 million soldiers and civilians died as a result of military action in the European theatre.

Antisemitism to Jews

Antisemitism and the persecution of Jews were central tenets of Nazi ideology.

In their 25-point party program published in 1920, Nazi Party members publicly declared their intention to segregate Jews from “Aryan” society and to abrogate their political, legal, and civil rights.

Hitler's "Aryan" Goal

He wanted to create an Aryan Army.

Hitler extremely wanted a blue-eyed and blond race to emerge. The children formed due to this project used to be killed when they lost their appearance over time.

Reasons why people are extremist;

- Unemployment
- Low education & literacy level etc.
- Special reasons(to be racist or hater etc.)

Resources

<https://youtu.be/qBwm4RrInp4>

What is manipulation ? Over The Hedge 2006

<https://youtu.be/BoF5oHj8p-M>

Lowkey - Internet Manipulation

<https://youtu.be/3dGsy71nvLE>

The Secret of Online Manipulation

<https://youtu.be/uX-AOi8kp2U>

Explainer : What causes extremism

<https://youtu.be/4Ph536eGzbA>

Radicalisation and Extremism - Educational Video

Wikipedia